Access to Capital - Unlocking Community Potential

INDIGENOUS ECONOMIC PROSPERITY FORUM

NACCA and the network of Aboriginal Financial Institutions are leaders in the advancement of Indigenous economic prosperity in Canada. This inaugural forum will highlight the need for increased access to capital for our First Nations, Inuit, and Métis entrepreneurs. Please join us in discussing the gaps between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Canadians, and together we will research innovative solutions to allow our entrepreneurs to thrive.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Delegates to the conference will include professionals, executives and stakeholders working with First Nations, Inuit and Métis entrepreneurs, communities and organizations. Many corporations, foundations and investors will be present, looking for options to establish their own economic reconciliation plans with the Indigenous Peoples.

Who should attend? We request input and participation from these groups:

- Indigenous organizations and leaders
- Financial Institutions
- Investment firms
- Community and business leaders
- Economic and business development professionals
- Indigenous Entrepreneurs
- Government officials
- Foundations
- Trust Funds

FEATURING

- Indigenous, Corporate and Government Leaders
- Panels and Workshops with focus on Access to Capital and Gaps & Solutions
- Networking Breaks, Prosperity Exchange Reception, Gala Dinner & Awards, and Trade Show
- Indigenous professionals, peers and artisans from across Canada
- Expert speakers focusing on leading edge trends, sharing of best practices and relevant issues impacting our profession and our communities
- Tradeshow that showcases exhibitors who offer choices and solutions in one location.
- This annual conference is the open-door forum where we meet to strengthen our communities, empower our economy and build our nations.

Access to Capital - Unlocking Community Potential

PROGRAM

Concurrent workshops will focus on four relevant themes:

- Developmental and Commercial Financing
- Alternate Financing - Housing & Infrastructure
