NACCA AND THE NETWORK OF ABORIGINAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

are leaders in the advancement of Indigenous economic development and prosperity in Canada. This forum highlights the need for increased access to capital for our First Nations, Inuit, and Métis entrepreneurs. Please join us in discussing the barriers affecting Indigenous entrepreneurs, and together we will break down these barriers and research innovative solutions to allow our entrepreneurs to thrive.

This year we are very pleased to announce that our Master of Ceremonies will be
ADAM BEACH

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Delegates to the conference will include professionals, executives, Economic Development Officers, business owners, Government officials, and other stakeholders working with First Nations, Inuit and Métis entrepreneurs, communities and organizations. We anticipate welcoming several representatives from Indigenous organizations in other countries. Many corporations, foundations and investors will be present, looking for options to establish their own economic reconciliation plans with the Indigenous Peoples.

Who should attend?

- Indigenous organizations and leaders
- Aboriginal Financial Institutions (AFIs)
- Mainstream Financial Institutions
- Investment firms
- Foundations
- Trust fund
- Community and business leaders
- Economic and business development professionals
- Indigenous entrepreneurs
- Government officials
- Financial Intermediaries

FEATURING

- Indigenous, Corporate and Government Leaders
- Panels and Workshops with focus on Access to Capital and Gaps & Solutions
- Networking Breaks, Prosperity Exchange Reception, Gala Dinner & Awards, and Trade Show
- Indigenous professionals, peers and artisans from across Canada
- Expert speakers focusing on leading edge trends, sharing best practices and relevant issues impacting our communities
- Tradeshow that showcases exhibitors who offer choices and solutions in one location
- This annual forum is where we meet to strengthen our communities, empower our economy and build our nations.

PROGRAM

During our 2020 Forum, we will focus on four areas of economic development and prosperity:

- Social investing, social impact & breaking down barriers
- Procurement - increasing Indigenous business participation
- Investing in economic reconciliation
- Success stories and opportunities in various industries, including agriculture.
